Juliet Buck
March 29, 2020
Blink without Delay

This assignment asked for us to have the RGB LED blink without delay and also read multiple sensors to add a 'fading' to all three channels of the RGB LED.

This assignment was relatively hard for me because I am still having difficult understanding the hardware part when we include the sensors and pontetiometer. There is a lot of things going on, on the board and I'm not sure how it is all connecting or how the electricity is flowing.